

Oral Assessment Rubric

Comprehensibility	Vocabulary	Correctness of Language	Risk-taking, signs of improvement
5 - Story was easy to understand. It was a complete story, with a beginning, middle, and an end.	5 - Lots of details. A wide variety of vocabulary words (more than just the current lesson).	5 - Good pronunciation. Almost no grammar mistakes. Language flowed smoothly.	5 - Story was creative, told with expression. You used transition words, inserted colorful comments. You found a way to communicate entirely in French.
3 - Story was fairly easy to follow, but there were a few rough spots (hesitation or groping for words).	3 - You used the vocabulary necessary to tell the story. The basic vocabulary was used correctly.	3 - Mostly correct, but you had some difficulty with pronunciation or grammar.	3 - Some vocal expression and creativity. The story was told correctly with some elaboration.
1 - Story was difficult to follow. Speech was very choppy.	1 - The story lacked needed words or had misused words.	1 - Little attempt to pronounce correctly. Significant errors in usage or grammar.	1- Monotone. You resorted to English. You only did the minimum to get by.
