

Chief Atahm School
TPRS Language Teaching Summer Institute
July 2021

The 16th Annual Chief Atahm School Language Teaching Summer Institute is designed to bring together new and experienced First Nations Language Teachers. The summer course is an opportunity to share our collective dreams of Language Revitalization by exploring theory and practice. The 2021 session will feature a 5-day TPR-Storytelling Course.

The cost for each participant for the five-day TPRS Summer Institute course is $800.00 (In-person) and $500.00 (Virtually). This cost includes all instruction, handouts, and light lunches.

There are motels, RV and camp sites, and other accommodations in the area.

TPR-Storytelling Course: Monday July 26 to Friday July 30, 2021

The TPR-Storytelling methodology for second language teaching has been successfully implemented in language classrooms worldwide. This story-based teaching method employs Classic TPR, an action-based methodology that quickly develops a core communicative vocabulary and progresses on to speaking using stories. Chief Atahm School has developed an intensive training program to help Indigenous language teachers build successful language programs through utilizing action-based, innovative teaching strategies. During this institute each participant will be provided with training through lectures, modeling, activities, and multimedia presentations to help develop skills specific to TPR-S. Dr. Kathryn Michel's, First Nations Language Essentials Level One (2018, FNSA/FNESC) will be used as the framework for this institute.
