CHIEF ATAHM SCHOOL
TOTAL PHYSICAL RESPONSE (TPR) SUMMER INSTITUTE
JULY 2017

The 13th Annual Chief Atahm School TPR Summer Institute is designed to bring together new and experienced First Nations Language Teachers. The summer courses are an opportunity to share our collective dreams of Language Revitalization by exploring theory and practice. The 2017 sessions will feature a 5-day Classic TPR Course and a 5-day TPR Storytelling Course. Both of these courses are accredited through Thompson Rivers University.

Classic TPR, Tuesday July 4th to Saturday July 8th, 2017:

The Total Physical Response Methodology for second language teaching has been successfully implemented in language classrooms worldwide. This action-based methodology quickly develops a core communicative vocabulary for students in a fun, creative way. Chief Atahm School has developed an intensive training program to help aboriginal language teachers build successful language programs through TPR. During this institute each participant will be provided with training through lectures, modeling, activities, and multimedia presentations to help develop skills specific to TPR.

Registration Information for Classic Total Physical Response (TPR), July 4th to 8th, 2017

The cost for each participant for the T.P.R. Summer Institute is $800.00. This cost includes all instruction, handouts, and light lunches (soup & sandwich). There are limited spaces available for low cost billeting.

Register for 3 credits, Thompson Rivers University (TRU) for extra cost: $100 admin fee
EDLL 3900 – Method for Teach Aboriginal Language

TPR Storytelling, Monday July 10th to Friday July 14th, 2017:
(Pre-requisite – Classic TPR)

TPR Storytelling is a development of Classic TPR that involves the incorporation of stories in order to develop speaking skills in language students. This intensive week long course will introduce the TPR Storytelling model and provide many practical and theoretical experiences. This course is recommended for past students of Classic TPR who have successfully implemented their training in a language classroom.

Registration Information for TPR Storytelling, July 10th to 14th, 2017
