

Chief Atahm School
TPRS Language Teaching Summer Institute on Vancouver Island in August 2019

Location:
Chief Atahm School
6371 Chief Jules Way,
Chase BC

The 15th Annual Chief Atahm School Language Teaching Summer Institute is designed to bring together new and experienced First Nations Language Teachers. The summer courses are an opportunity to share our collective dreams of Language Revitalization by exploring theory and practice. For 2019 we are bringing the 5-day Innovative Teaching Practices course to the Island!

The cost for each participant for each of the five day TPRS Summer Institute courses is $800.00. This cost includes all instruction, handouts, and light lunches. There are a block of rooms set aside for a limited time at motels and hotels nearby.

Innovative Teaching Practices : Monday August 19th to Friday August 23rd, 2019

The TPR-Storytelling methodology for second language teaching has been successfully implemented in language classrooms worldwide. This story-based teaching method employs Classic TPR, an action-based methodology that quickly develops a core communicative vocabulary, and progresses on to speaking using stories. Chief Atahm School has developed an intensive training program to help aboriginal language teachers build successful language programs through utilizing action-based, innovative teaching strategies. During this institute each participant will be provided with training through lectures, modeling, activities, and multimedia presentations to help develop skills specific to TPR-S. Dr. Kathryn Michel's, First Nations Language Essentials Level One (2018, FNSA/FNESC) will be used as the framework for this institute.

Course Instructors:

Kathryn Michel, EdD and Janice Michel-Billy, M.Ed.
